Special Thanks

Getting the word out to the public is somewhat a chore. I would like to take a moment to thank the Salinapost.com and the Lucas/Sylvan Grove News. Editor, Rita Sharp for putting our story in their publications.

It our intent to try to reach as many people as we can to encourage students leaving high school and attending a 2 or 4 year school to further their education.

After attending a couple of High School graduations this past summer, I learn that many students apply for scholarships through their school. During the graduation, The scholarships awards are announced.

We want all area students to have the opportunity to win our Scholarship. So get the word out. And if you know anyone who is associated with the Lucas/Sylvan News or the Salilna Post, please give them our thanks.

And most of all past the word about that we are looking for next years winners. Just direct them to Kansastractorclub.com and click on the scholarship tab.

We hope to have a lot of applications for next year.

What A Year! What's Your Story

After multiple cancellations, a couple of shows did get their dates in. Salina Area Tech Vehicle Extravaganza was held the first of September. This was their second year having it in the fall after multiple rainouts over the past several spring dates.

The Abilene Heritage days show was held the first of October. It appears there was a nice turnout, but not near the crowds from the past.

We would like to reach out to everyone who reads this newsletter to let the club know of any and all upcoming tractor shows, drives or anything else that is farm related. We would like to add the event to our calendar.

We are hoping and praying for a much better year next year and see large crowds coming out to see our hard work and our love for our craft.

This will be the last newsletter for this year and let me tell you, finding something to write about has been a chore.

Be sure to look for our next newsletter that should be arriving the first week of January. It will have an announcements of the annual members meeting and some good news of upcoming shows.

If you have a story or an event to tell, please email me at dhelm537@gmail.com. Pictures are good too. If you have a project your are working or if you need to sell some of your collection to make room for more, send a note and we will place it in the next newsletter.

Auctions this month

Nixon Auctioneers are having a sale soon with some incredibly rare engines and tractors that they thought our readers or members might be interested in, or may at least enjoy reading about. They have a hand full of Allis Chalmers rare crawlers, some Cletracs,

Case, Monarchs and more. Can you also add our show dates to your calendar?
